From Monday APRIL 27, to Monday MAY 11, 1767.

London, February 20.

Extract of a letter from Rome, Jan. 5.

"IT is talked here, that the king of Spain is taken up in carrying on a vigorous proceſs, not only againſt the Jeſuits, but alſo againſt the Jeſuitical court of Rome; that he has aſſembled a number of divines, and other proper perſons, to conſider whether he might not lawfully prohibit all applications to Rome for diſpenſations, &c. and appropriate the whole management and deciſion of ſuch matters to his own biſhops; that this queſtion being determined in the affirmative, he hath cauſed a book to be written and printed in the Spaniſh language, for a ſtanding proof and defence of his conduct on this occaſion; and being reſolved to ſatisfy others, as well as his own people, of the fidelity of thoſe reaſons which have prevailed upon him to do this, he has ordered that book to be tranſlated into Italian, whereby it will become more public to the world, and be read by thoſe whom it may more particularly concern, and by the generality, at leaſt, of the more ſouthern parts of Europe."

FEBRUARY 27.

We hear that this morning the right hon. the Earl of Strathmore will be married to Mrs. Bowes of Durham, the greateſt heireſs of Europe; her preſent fortune is one million and 40 000 l. beſides a large jointure on the death of her mother, and a large eſtate on the demiſe of her uncle.

According to private advices from Leghorn, it is ſaid that a fruitleſs attempt had lately been made on the life of Paoli, general of the Corſicans.

Monday the tranſport ſhips fell down the river to Woolwich, to embark a detachment of the train of artillery for New-York.

We are well aſſured that ſome conſiderable changes will ſoon take place in the miniſtry.

Every one of the American provinces have complied without demur, with the orders of government, for quartering troops, and all other requiſitions, except Boſton and New-York; who, however, it is thought will know their intereſt too well to oppoſe ſo trifling a circumſtance, as finding the troops with ſalt and ſmall beer.

The forces ſo much talked of to go to America, are only to relieve the ſeveral regiments that have been there for ſome years.

Extract of a letter from Cheſter, Feb. 25.

"Yeſterday morning, about three o' clock, I was greatly alarmed by the cry of fire, and the tolling of the fire bells: when I aroſe out of my bed, which was not far from where the fire happened, the moſt ſhocking ſight preſented itſelf to me; the workhouſe, in which all the poor of eleven pariſhes lived, to the amount of 200 boys and girls, beſides men and women, was entirely burnt to the ground, together with upwards of ſixty children, and about twelve men and five women, in all ſeventy ſeven; the reſt were ſaved. It was about two o'clock in the morning when the fire firſt broke out, but it was ſuppoſed to have been burning all night; as about twenty children lie in one room, and, it is ſuppoſed, they by ſome accident ſet fire to ſome cotton which the children ſpin, and which was owing to the negligence of one woman, by letting them go to bed by themſelves. It is impoſſible to expreſs the horror and diſtreſs the poor people were in, ſome of them running out naked, others jumping out of the windows and from the top of the building: In ſhort, it was the moſt ſhocking ſight that ever was ſeen. There are now upwards of thirty men employed in digging out the bones and dead bodies, but there are none found as yet, and it is ſuppoſed they are all burnt to aſhes.

MARCH 2.

Major-General Monckton is appointed Governor of Jamaica.

Letters from Poland, of the 6th of February, ſay, that a report prevails there, that 40,000 Ruſſian troops more are to arrive, as ſoon as the ſeaſon will permit, in that kingdom, and that the Poles are preparing to oppoſe them.

The houſe of commons ſat very late on Friday night, and was engaged upon buſineſs of ſuch conſequence, that the houſe was ordered to be cleared of all perſons who were not members.

It was on Saturday morning reported that advice had been received of the colony of New-York having ſubmitted, in all things, to his Majeſty's injunction, as lately tranſmitted to Sir Henry Moore, governor of the province, and that a very loyal addreſs was preparing to be tranſmitted home when theſe letters came away.

MARCH 3.

Among other changes in the adminiſtration talked of, are,

The Duke of Grafton and Lord Gower to be Secretaries of State.

The right hon. C. Townſend to be firſt lord of the treaſury.

The Marquis of Rockingham to be lord Chamberlain.

Lord Mansfield to be lord preſident of the council.

The hon. Mr. Yorke to be chancellor.

It has been remarked, that the ſeveral adminiſtrations for forty years paſt, always carried their point in reſpect to the land tax.

We are aſſured the right hon. the Earl of Chatham arrived at his houſe ſo much recovered in his health, as gave the greateſt pleaſure to all his friends.

Yeſterday ſeveral of the heads of the preſent adminiſtration had a long conference with the right hon. the Earl of Chatham, at his houſe in Bond-ſtreet.

We hear that Major-General Monckton will embark for his government of Jamaica the latter end of next week, in conſequence of ſome recent advices received from that iſland.

Changes in the adminiſtration are more than ever talked of, and ſeveral liſts are handed about of the names of the Ours who are to be Ins, and of the Ins who are to be Outs; but we are credibly informed that the alterations to be made are not yet ſettled.

We hear, the laſt letters from Copenhagen, bring an account of the pregnancy of her Majeſty the Queen of Denmark.

Yeſterday morning ſeveral of the nobility and great officers of ſtate paid Lord Chatham a viſit. His Lordſhip, contrary to all expectation, is almoſt recovered from the gout, than which no news can be more pleaſing to every real lover of his country.

They write from Liſbon, that the prime miniſter of Portugal continues to ſtand out againſt all the remonſtrances of the hon. Mr. Hay, his Majeſty's Envoy, for aboliſhing certain late erected monopolies, extremely prejudicial to the Britiſh commerce in that kingdom.

It is ſaid a promotion of admirals will ſhortly take place, ſeveral old ones having lately died.

Orders have been ſent to Scotland, to delay the embarkation of ſome regiments of foot on that eſtabliſhment, which were intended for North-America.

The cold has been very ſevere this winter all over France and Germany.

MARCH 5.

The report continues, that a great change is in agitation.

A man of war is ordered to be fitted out at Portſmouth, to carry over his Excellency Gen. Monckton to his government of Jamaica.

Orders are ſent to Woolwich for two companies of the royal regiment of artillery to hold themſelves in readineſs to embark for North-America at the ſhorteſt notice.

This week ſeveral artificers in the glaſs manufactories were engaged, on good encouragement, to embark for New-York.

The addreſs of thanks of the high ſheriff, grand jury, gentlemen and clergy of the county of Bucks, to their repreſentatives in parliament.

WE the high ſheriff, grand jury, gentlemen and clergy of the county of Bucks, aſſembled at the aſſizes held at Aylesbury the third day of March, 1767, take this earlieſt opportunity of returning our ſincere and cordial thanks to ſuch of our repreſentatives in parliament ſerving this county, and the ſeveral boroughs within the ſame, as have contributed by their virtue and ſpirit to relieve us from part of the heavy burden of four ſhillings in the pound upon land; a burthen in its full extent become, in theſe times of diſtreſs and ſcarcity, inſupportable.

We are alſo encouraged to expreſs our earneſt hopes and confidence, that by the continuance of their aſſiſtance, and by the wiſdom and juſtice of a truly Britiſh parliament, the firſt ſeſſion only may be enforced; and that his Majeſty's loyal and obedient ſubjects, the landholders of his kingdom, will not be charged with an increaſe of taxes, unknown in time of peace, in order to defray the expences, which have hitherto been conſtantly borne by his Majeſty's colonies in America; and of which thoſe colonies have, by inſurrection and violence, refuſed to contribute any part for their own protection and defence, though required thereto by an act of the Britiſh legiſlature."

On Friday a motion was made to reduce the land tax to 3 s. in the pound, and carried by a majority in favour thereof.

Extract of a letter from London, March 3.

"The late diſputes in New York have again rouſed the revengeful ſpirit of your enemies, and have loſt the colonies ſome, till now, very ſtaunch friends, and who were moſt attached to their intereſts, Mr. C——s T——d, &c.

"Lord Chatham was brought to town a few days ſince exceſſively ill—No public buſineſs has been done this winter for want of him: What a ſituation is this! the oppoſition to him is amazing powerful."

American INTELLIGENCE.

NEW-YORK, March 16.

WE had extreme cold weather for ſome days paſt, and 'tis ſaid laſt Friday was colder by two degrees than any day we had all laſt winter.

MARCH 23.

Wedneſday a great number of gentlemen, who choſe publicly to celebrate the anniverſary of the repeal of the ſtamp-act met at the houſe of Edward Bardin, where an elegant entertainment was prepared, and after dinner the following loyal and patriotic toaſts were drank, viz. 1. The King. 2. The Queen. 3. The prince of Wales, and all the royal family. 4. May the illuſtrious houſe of Hanover never want an heir to rule the Britiſh empire. 5 Perpetual amity and good will between Great-Britain and her colonies. 6. May proteſtion and indulgence ever produce love, gratitude and loyalty. 7. The truly patriotic miniſtry of the year 1766. 8 The glorious majority of both houſes the ſame year. 9. Navy and army. 10. Governor and province. 11. Lord Chatham. 12. Secretary Conway. 13. Duke of Grafton. 14. Marquis of Rockingham. 15. Lord Shelburn. 16. Lord Dartmouth. 17. Lord Camden. 18. Mr. Dowdeſwell. 19. General Howard. 20. Colonel Barré. 21. Mr. Charles Townſend. 22 Mr. Nicholas Ray. 23. The friends of America, in Great Britain and elſewhere; and the evening concluded with illuminations and the greateſt harmony.

MARCH 30.

A few very miſchievous ſpirits among the ſoldiery, ſuppoſed to be of the loweſt rank, quarter'd in the barracks in this city, have again for this week paſt been endeavouring to raiſe ill will and diſturbance, between the citizens and ſoldiers. The cauſes of ſuch a malevolent diſpoſition towards the inhabitants is unknown, as well as the perſons poſſeſſed of it.—It particularly ſhews itſelf on occaſions when every true friend to the Engliſh nation and government, every one who wiſhes its proſperity, and the preſervation of its happy conſtitution [illegible] diſtinctions of a quite oppoſite [illegible] affectionate regard for a people ſo firmly attach'd to that conſtitution which is the glory and happineſs of Engliſhmen ſo loyal to his Majeſty, and reſolutely determin'd to defend and ſupport, at the hazard of their lives and fortunes, him, and every order in the nation, in the full enjoyment of their juſt rights and privileges—Such principles and tempers, univerſally prevailed with the people here, which would have endeared [illegible] true Engliſhmen, exceeds, the enmity of the lurking foes to [illegible] good order, to liberty and [illegible] king and government.

After the entertainments on Wedneſday the 18th inſt. (in commemoration of the repeal of the ſtamp-act, which, if it had taken place, muſt have ruin'd the whole Britiſh empire;) the evening having concluded with great good humour and harmony, the maſt erected on the common, inſcribed to his Majeſty, Mr. Pitt, and Liberty, on occaſion of the repeal, was in the night cut down.—Next day the inhabitants erected another, more large and ſubſtantial, ſecured with iron to a conſiderable height above ground: The ſame night attempts were made both to cut it down, and to undermine and dig it down, but without effect. On Saturday night, the 21ſt, there was an attempt to deſtroy it by gun-powder, by boring a hole, and charging it with powder, but this alſo fail'd.—Next night, Sunday, a ſtrong watch was ſet by the citizens, at an adjacent houſe; a ſmall company of ſoldiers in the night appear'd with their coats turn'd, arm'd with bayonets and ſticks, but no guns. Some of the watch went out, aſk'd who they were, and their buſineſs? but received no ſatisfactory anſwer: They then drew up before the door where the watch was kept, but after a few words, thought proper to retire. On Monday about ſix in the evening, a party of ſoldiers march'd by the poſt, and as they paſſed by Mr. Bardin's tavern fired their muſkets, two of which were pointed at the houſe; next morning it was found that a ball had been fired through the houſe, and another into one of the timbers.—On Tueſday about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the ſame party as it is ſuppoſed, took a ladder from a new building, which they carried to the barracks, and were from thence proceeding towards the poſt but being ſeen by an officer he ſtop'd and turn'd them back, and notice of this behaviour of the ſoldiers, getting to the governor and general and the magiſtrates of the city, we hear ſtrict orders were immediately given, and effectual meaſures taken to prevent diſturbance, or any the like future occaſion of it; ſince which all has been quiet, and we hope this matter, in itſelf trivial, and only conſider'd as of importance by the citizens, as it ſhew'd an intention to offend and inſult them, will occaſion no farther difference.

HARTFORD, March 16.

Laſt week we had the ſevereſt cold weather that was ever remembered at this ſeaſon, which froze the river ſo much that people paſs'd and re-paſs'd on the ice

NEW-PORT, March 23.

The friends of liberty, on the approach of the eighteenth day of March, inſtant, the anniverſary of the repeal of the late ſtamp act were determined, on that memorable day, to make ſome public exhibitions, demonſtrative of their inviolable adherence to the cauſe of liberty and their country,—of their inviolable faithfulneſs and loyalty to his ſacred Majeſty, GEORGE the Third—and of ſincere affection for their brethren and fellow ſubjects, the inhabitants of England:—Accordingly, the tree of liberty being well preſſed, a flag was diſplayed on the top, and a large copper plate affixed to the trunk, with the inſcription engraved thereon, viz. THE TREE OF LIBERTY. STAMP-ACT REPEALED MARCH 18, 1766.—Flags were hoiſted at Fort George, at the battery erected at the point, &c. and the ſhipping in the harbour diſplayed their colours. A royal ſalute was fired from the point battery; the bells were rung, &c. The honourable Metcalfe Bowler, Eſq; in the evening, gave an elegant entertainment to a number of gentlemen, true friends of liberty; when a great number of loyal and patriotic toaſts were drank, with the higheſt marks of joy and ſatisfaction. Many other gentlemen, in different parts of the town, alſo met to commemorate this happy event, to exhibit freſh proofs of gratitude to our gracious ſovereign, and to the Britiſh worthies, who appeared our advocates in the late times of danger, and, to their immortal honour, reſcued us, and the nation in general, from impending ruin.

BOSTON, March 23.

Friday laſt his excellency the governor was pleaſed to prorogue the great and general court, (which had been ſitting here ſo fifty two days paſt) to Wedneſday the 15th of April next.

PORTSMOUTH, (in New-Hampſhire) March 26.

Laſt Wedneſday being the anniverſary of that memorable day, when both Great-Britain and her colonies were happily deliver'd from jealouſies, diſtreſs and impending ruin, by the repeal of the STAMP ACT——The day was celebrated by the SONS OF LIBERTY here, with public enſigns of joy, and in the evening many hearty friends to his preſent Majeſty King GEORGE, the nation, and their country, aſſembled at the houſe of M. G. G. where a decent entertainment was provided, and toaſts of loyalty and gratitude were drank, which were anſwered by firing hearty rounds of braſs pieces of cannon; teſtifying the allegiance of American ſubjects to their King,—their high ſentiments of the wiſdom and juſtice of the Britiſh parliament in cruſhing an immodeſt and infamous act—and their indelible remembrance of all thoſe worthy and noble patriots, by whoſe zeal and activity this great deliverance was accompliſhed. One valuable end deſigned by the joy and feſtivity of this anniverſary is, that our children, and children's children through many generations, may remember, that ONCE Britain and her colonies were upon the brink of deſtruction by [illegible] which ſtruck at the root of all their privileges [illegible] proſperity; but were ſaved by the wiſdom of their King, and a patriotic parliament.

PROVIDENCE, March 27.

Wedneſday laſt being the anniverſary of the repeal of the late STAMP ACT, the ſame was celebrated here by the free and loyal people of this town. The morning was uſhered in by the ringing of bells, and beating of drums; the firing of guns continued moſt of the forenoon.—In the evening a grand ball was given by the young gentlemen of the town, at which was a very grand appearance of ladies; and the evening concluded with the greateſt ſatisfaction to the whole company.

ANNAPOLIS (in Maryland) April 2.

Our accounts of the damages done by the heavy freſhes the 6th and 7th of laſt month, in the weſtern parts, are indeed terrible. In one part of Patowmack, the river aroſe to forty feet perpendicular higher than it is in the ſummer, and a vaſt deal higher than has been known before. By the backwater of Patowmack, the mouth of Mano kacy roſe about 20 feet, and about 15 feet in other parts. Many houſes, cattle, horſes, hogs, &c. were by the flood carried away and loſt: One Mr Douglaſs had his ſtock of 22 head of cattle, his working horſes, and 37 hogs, entirely carried away. The damages ſuſtained by this inundation are beyond deſcription.

BOSTON, April 6.

Thurſday laſt his excellency the governor was pleaſed to iſſue a proclamation for diſſolving the great and general court or aſſembly.

April 23. We hear that Robert Auchmuty, Eſq; is appointed by his excellency the governor, judge of the court of vice-admiralty.

NEWPORT, April 20.

A meeting of the North American merchants was held in London on the 7th of January, who choſe a committee, in order to conſider of, and form a plan for the circulating of paper currency in the American colonies; and as they had great encouragement from the preſent miniſtry, they had no doubt of obtaining the deſired point.

CHARLES-TOWN, May 11, 1767.

WE have the pleasure to acquaint the public, that the successful introduction of the SILK MANUFACTURE in this province, bears a promising aspect, as we hear there are great quantities of silk worms raised in almost every family in Purrysburg parish, and some by the French of Hillsborough, and the English and Germans near Long Canes; and that several gentlemen and ladies, near Charles-Town, will make the private amusement of raising silk worms, tend to the publick benefit, by shewing how easily the knowledge thereof is to be acquired, and what small labour is necessary in the management of them. Mr. JOHN LEWIS GIBERT, a native of France, who is employed by the Gentlemen concerned on behalf of the public, in the encouragement of this manufacture, to wind, and teach the winding of silk, has now a considerable number of silk worms, in the old school-house, near the new barracks, where gentlemen, who are desirous of seeing them, either through curiosity, or inclination to promote so valuable a branch of trade, may, at one and the same time, view them in the various stages of life, some young, some full grown, and some spinning their balls or cocoons.

The Librarian of the Charles-Town Library-Society also raises a few in the lobby of the library-room, where gentlemen, who are not willing to go so far as Mr. Gibert's, may satisfy their curiosity.

Workmen are now employed in building an oven for curing the cocoons, erecting four machines and all other necessaries for winding silk, with all expedition, in rooms adjoining Mr. Gibert's, in order that the filature may be set to work as soon as the cocoons are fit, which may be in about three weeks.

On Monday the 27th past, the only son of his excellency the right hon Lord Charles Greville Montagu, governor of this province, was baptized by the name of Charles George. The sponsors were, his grace the duke of Manchester, the hon. Peter Manigault, Esq; speaker of the commons house of assembly of this province, and Miss Harriet Pinckney. The hon. Egerton Leigh, Esq; stood as proxy for the Duke of Manchester.

The South-Carolina Society, in consideration of the long and faithful services of Samuel Prioleau, Esq; their clerk, have augmented his salary to fifty pounds sterling per annum, and presented him with a handsome piece of plate, of upwards of two hundred pounds currency value, on which is engraved the following words, viz.

"THE GIFT
OF THE [illegible] CAROLINA SOCIETY
TO
MR. SAMUEL PRIOLEAU,
AS A TESTIMONY
OF THEIR SENSE OF HIS LONG AND BENEFICIAL SERVICES, THEIR CLERK, DURING 27 YEARS."

Last Saturday the price of rice was raised at this market from 50 to 55s. per hundred, and upwards. From the first of November to this day about 80,000 tierces of that grain have been shipped from this port, but people widely differ in their conjectures of the quantity still remaining in the country, some estimating it at 5000, others at a few so high as 30000.

Capt. [illegible]ck, who arrived here the 30th past from London, has brought over Richard Halloway, Esq; lately appointed collector of his Majesty's customs for Beaufort, Port-Royal, Mr. George Bedon, jun — with Messrs. Martin and George Jollie, and several other passengers for East-Florida.

Sir Charles Burdett, collector of East Florida, embarked the 2d instant, on board the Mary, Capt. Doran, for St. Augustine, with some other passengers who intend to settle in that new colony.

We are informed, that there will be a very full commons house of assembly on Tuesday next the 19th instant, all the members being then required to attend, to dispatch and bring the business of the session to a conclusion.

Tuesday the 21st past, Capt. Thomas Savage, of the Charles-Town company of light infantry, was married at Savannah in Georgia, to Miss Polly Butler, only daughter of the late William Butler, Esq; of that province.

The 30th past died, in this town, William Branford, Esq; reckoned one of the best planters in the province.

On Thursday the 23d past, Doctor John De La Howe, was married to Mrs. Anne Boyd, widow of Capt. Robert Boyd.

The number of sea vessels now here is only 35, viz. 14 ships, 5 snows, 6 brigantines, 2 scooners, and 7 sloops; of which number 5 lie windbound, and most of the rest will be loaded in a few days.

MR. TIMOTHY,

IF I did not take some public notice of the charge laid against me in your last paper (of having pocketed some of the clerk of St. Michael's money) in a letter of which I take J—n Br—und to be the author, it might be thought, that I was not only dishonest, but also that I had not the spirit of a worm: I must therefore beg a place for this in your next, by which I humbly hope I shall not give the least offence to any man except said J—n B—und.

I must own I hardly thought any man had effrontery enough to assert so flagrant a falsity in so public a manner.—— If I had of his money, why did he not ask for it in some way or other?—What a front, what a principle, must such a man have! What must it be ascribed to? In short, he has lived so long in the manner he now does, that the great RULER seems to have abandoned him to his own diabolical nature.—What would you think of a man uttering this soliloquy, viz. "D—ring you "was not a married man, nay had you a religious of- "fice for a cloak, therefore you had no pretence for liv- "ing in the state you did; accordingly you was PRE- "SENTED: If I should fall in with a good house- "keeper, I will get to be a clerk to some church, to rub "off as I go; and the art of profaning my Creator at "almost every word and singing of psalms, I believe is "pretty easily learnt."

It is customary with B—d, whenever the ringers assemble, to place a man at the door, to collect something from every person that enters to see them ringing: Whether such collections are private property, clerk's fees, or perquisites, is left to the reader.—— Every ringer (except this J—n B—d) scorns to pocket a farthing. No, say they, let every one that pays, see his money spent, and partake of the refreshment it may afford.

It is true, I had once a little money, the property of the ringers in my hands, which I suppose B—d alludes to, of which I will now render a faithful account. On the glorious anniversary of the repeal of the Stamp-Act several of the ringers met at the steeple to conclude the day in the same joyful manner as it had been ushered in. After ringing some time, they agreed to club for some liquor; other gentlemen present desired they might do the same; and it was agreed that all should join who came in. Thus 4 l. 10 s. was gathered; but one of the gentlemen saying, he had paid money at the door, it displeased the ringers so much, that several of them were going away, had I not stopt them, by going to the door, and asking the door-keeper, "who had or- "dered him take money?" He answered, "Mr. [illegible] he was to be allowed com- [illegible]hich I took from him, what [illegible] to 25 s. and it was sent [illegible]he mean time, in [illegible]unch and fix [illegible]sons of li- [illegible]quor [illegible]ey [illegible]re [illegible]

[illegible] to pay to Mr. [illegible]eople on the anniver- [illegible]. This creature B—d was at the spending of every farthing, except that charged by Mr. Holliday for beer, which his negroes must have had, for I saw none: Besides, we left three bottles of the wine, which suppose was his perquisite, for I can't learn what became of them.

Thus have I accounted upon the word of an honest man for every farthing I ever received at, or belonging to, the steeple in any shape whatever.

J—s a L—k—d.

N. B. Several of the principal ringers have determined never to touch a rope in that steeple, while B—d has the care of it, as they look upon his assertion of pocketting his money, as an affront offered to them all, tho' levelled at me alone, who was only their steward.

Christopher Simpson,

HAVING given all the information he could to those persons indebted to WILLIAM CARTNER, of Ashley river, in St. Andrew's parish, to settle their Accompts with him only, as no other person could give a legal discharge; he hereby for the last time desires those indebted to the said William Cartner to put it off no longer, otherwise he is determined to put such accompts as are not settled, either by bond or note, in three weeks after this date, into the hands of a lawyer, to be sued for without distinction.—He desires his friends who have favoured him with their custom, and whose accompts are long due, to settle the same as soon as possible.

Charles-Town, April 24, 1767.

TO BE SOLD,

A PLANTATION on Santee-River, called BELVIDERE, consisting of two tracts of 800 acres each, one of which joins Mellifont's-Ferry, and is as good oak and hickory land as any in the province, and has on it a good overseer's house, negro-houses, indico vats, and all other necessary buildings.

The other tract lies on the opposite side of the river, and is all very fine high river swamp; both tracts are under good fence, and ready for planting next season. Any person inclinable to purchase, may apply to JACOB MOTTE, jun. or, THOMAS LYNCH.

ALL persons indebted to the estate of Francis Stuart, late of Beaufort, merchant, deceased, either by bond, note, or open accompt, are desired to make immediate payment of the same, and those to whom the said estate is indebted, to bring in their accompts properly attested to

N. B. It is above nine months since the deceased Francis Stuart advertised his having declined business in Beaufort, and his desire of closing his affairs there; at the same time requesting those indebted to him to settle their accompts with him; such as paid no regard to that advertisement, need not be surprised if they find themselves under the necessity of settling with an attorney at law, should they prove equally regardless of this, as it would be unreasonable for them to expect the same indulgence from administrators, that they possibly might have had from the deceased, when alive.

THE subscriber having left off the dry goods business, will sell the remainder of his stock at a reasonable rate; and as there is an absolute necessity of closing all his concerns in that way, he hopes all his debtors will be good enough to make immediate payment of their several debts, and not put him under the disagreeable necessity of using harsh means for the recovery of them, especially those of long standing; and as this is the only notice he can possibly give them, he hopes that due regard will be paid to the same.
